Vincenzo Nocerino is being made Global CIO, while remaining CEO of BNP Paribas REIM Italy and a member of the Executive Board of BNP Paribas REIM. He will be tasked with supporting the growth of the entire business line, across all asset classes, regions and risk profiles. Vincenzo knows BNP Paribas REIM well, having joined in 2020.

He was previously Head of Transactions at UBS Real Estate & Private Markets, where he coordinated sourcing and execution of real estate transactions for funds under management and Separate Accounts, as well as supporting the company's development and fundraising.

Vincenzo Nocerino is a graduate in Business Administration from Bocconi University in Milan.

Laurence Weydert has been appointed Global Head of Asset Management at BNP Paribas REIM. This is a new position specifically created to ensure that the organisation fulfils the growing need for active portfolio management on a consistent basis across Europe. Laurence will report to Vincenzo Nocerino in this role. She will also remain Head of Asset Management France & Belux, a position she has held since January 2022. Laurence has 25 years' experience in Audit, Advisory, Investment and Asset Management. She spent over ten years with the Klépierre Group, where she was Head of Operations for Sweden and Denmark for five years. She then ran the Investment Management and Asset Management activities for France and Belgium for six years.

Laurence Weydert trained as an engineer. She is a graduate of ESTP and holds a post-graduate diploma in accountancy (DESCF).

Swati Srivastava is appointed as Country Head UK. She will continue to develop BNP Paribas REIM's business in the country and her appointment emphasises the strategic importance of the UK business. She also continues to serve as the Head of Institutional Sales & Investor Relations for the UK, Ireland, Netherlands, Nordics and International Clients, a role she has fulfilled since November 2022.

Swati brings over 21 years of institutional client, strategy and capital raising experience in FTSE 100, as well as entrepreneurial environments. Previously, she worked at Frogmore, Aviva Investors, Fitch Ratings and Lloyds TSB. She has also been a part of the Research Associate Program at INSEAD, Fontainebleau, France where she published research on corporate strategy and brand transformation. She holds an Investment Management Certificate (IMC), an MBA and a B.Sc. (Hons.), Physics.

"I am delighted to announce the appointments of Vincenzo, Laurence and Swati. They are among the many talented people who drive the company forward daily and who are bound to make their mark on the wider property industry in the coming years. These appointments, from three different nationalities, once again exemplify our strategy of promoting from within, whenever appropriate" says Jean-Maxime Jouis, Global Head of the Investment Management division for BNP Paribas Real Estate and Chairman of the Management board of BNP Paribas REIM France.
