

BNP PARIBAS REAL ESTATE HAS BEEN APPOINTED BY DEKA IMMOBILIEN TO MANAGE “TOWER 185” IN FRANKFURT

DEKA Immobilien GmbH has instructed BNP Paribas Real Estate Property Management on the commercial and technical property management of “Tower 185”, an office building in Frankfurt. The building, completed in 2011, has a total lettable space of approximately 100,000 sq m.

The acquisition of Tower 185 by DEKA Immobilien GmbH was one of the largest transactions carried out in Germany in 2017. This fourth-highest office building in Germany was certified with the Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design (LEED) Gold Standard and the DGNB Gold Certification for sustainable construction.

“The fact that we are now managing two high-rise buildings in Frankfurt, the Tower 185 and the TRIANON, which significantly shape the skyline of the city, is a real source of motivation for our team” said Frank Helm, Managing Director Property Management of BNP Paribas Real Estate Germany.

“This mandate fits perfectly our ambitions at a European level, incorporating challenges such as energy and financial performance especially for landmark buildings. We are particularly proud of the German team for this success that contributes to our global pan-European strategic plan”, said Csongor Csukas, Executive Director International Property Management of BNP Paribas Real Estate.
