

COMMUNIQUÉ DE PRESSE

SANDRA ZENGERLING APPOINTED DEPUTY MANAGING DIRECTOR OF BNP PARIBAS REAL ESTATE PROPERTY MANAGEMENT FRANCE

Sandra Zengerling has been appointed Deputy Managing Director of BNP Paribas Real Estate Property Management France. She will oversee all the support functions and some of the operational teams.

Sandra Zengerling's brief will be to continue with the evolution of the organisation and use her international vision to enhance the excellence of the customer service. She will report to Jean-Claude Tanguy, Chairman of the management board of BNP Paribas Real Estate Property Management France.

"BNP Paribas Real Estate Property Management France wants to strengthen its position as a leading player on the Property Management market. To do this, we make the most of the skills of our international staff, who we identify as real sources of the best practices applicable to all the countries where we are established. We are certain that the arrival of Sandra Zengerling will be beneficial to all our clients. Her experience and international vision will quickly bring new advantages to our structure" indicates Jean-Claude Tanguy.

Sandra Zengerling was previously Managing Director of BNP Paribas Real Estate Property Management Germany. She joined the group in 2013 after the acquisition of Imoplan that she restructured and managed for more than three years. She was previously a consultant with Groß & Partner and ran acquisition audits for German companies investing in France. Before that, Sandra Zengerling worked in asset management positions in HAVIKA.
